

Fifty years of Łowicka's insemination

S u m m a r y

Mazovian Centre of Animal Breeding and Reproduction Ltd. in Łowicz, in its history performed insemination services of cattle, pigs, horses, sheep, goats and bees. It resulted from regional requirements. At the moment, the high concentration of animals in farms and the interest of farmers, stimulates the improvement of cattle, pigs, and bee insemination techniques. The company possesses all types and breeds of animals available in Poland as well as in the World Accomplishment of breeding programmes as a result of selection provides bulls of the highest genetic merit. The partnership with Academic Centres and Scientific Institutes in the field of improving knowledge and forms of influencing the mass-breeding and instructing technical personnel allows to accomplish all the projects of the Company to the advantage of farmers.